Who will be there?

Leaders from the Department of Defense, the education community, the aerospace community and your Senators and Representatives have been invited to this event.

Security

This is a federal building. Please remember to take out all rocket motors and electronics that could be perceived as dangerous. Rockets will have to go through the x-ray machines. Much like at airports, you will have to take off all metal prior to going through the metal detector, all bags will be scanned, and you may be asked to take off your shoes.

Attire

- Boys: a suit or shirt and tie
- Girls: a suit or a nice dress

Refreshments

We will provide light refreshments at this event. We suggest that attendees have a heartier breakfast before arriving.
